Affairs in Florida.
TALLAHASSEE, Fla., November 19.—At a meeting of the Supreme Court this morning, Judges Hart and Westcott were present. Information against Lieutenant-Governor Gleason was filed and rule nisi ordered, returnable Tuesday next, calling on Gleason to show why a writ of habeas corpus should not be issued on application. This will bring the case before the Supreme Court, where its merits probably will be fully ventilated.

In the report of proceedings of the convention of colored men of Florida, held here on the second of November, in accordance with a recommendation of the colored convention held in Boston on October second, as published to-day in the official papers of this judicial district, there seems to have been perfect accord between all the delegates here sent and no signs of a split visible. At this convention, individuals, both white and colored, made addresses, who are now in opposition to each other. In the same issue appears a proclamation, with no headquarters named, signed Robert Cox, chairman; A. C. Lightbourn, secretary, both of whom are colored, in opposition to Saunders' nomination, which says that, finding Saunders' course will ruin the State, and more especially the Republican party, and bind us hand and foot so that the Democracy may triumph; and having seen the condition of the colored men of Georgia, who have been prostrated from the condition of manhood, who the constitution gives them, by having the Democracy as rulers, say they know that the split in the Republican ranks, particularly in the colored element of the population of that State, brought her to her present condition, that the constitution of this State should open the door to every former rebel, however vicious, allowing him to vote; that they cannot afford to have a split in their midst without swamping, and appeal to every colored man in this State to stand firm in support of C. M. Hamilton, the regular nominee, who is a good Republican, and asks Saunders to stay still awhile when he shall be taken care of. It notifies him that if he enters the field that Justice, as the great tiger hunter, will shoot him politically dead. This manifesto purports to come from the voters of the County of Leon, met for the purpose of considering the course taken by Colonel W. W. Saunders as an independent candidate for Congress.

the mail, and at the time regretted it, went immediately to Mr. Mikell and asked him if he would not allow him to serve his country; I told him I regretted my appointment, from the fact that I had served before and had not been paid; Mr. Mikell said he would serve, and the money would be paid to me; I never met and organized as a board; there was a mutual understanding between Mr. Tatt and myself that Mr. Mikell should be chairman; Mr. Tatt received his appointment through the mail, with some printed instructions, and concluded, as his name appeared first, he was chairman of the board. Subsequently, I saw Mr. Mikell, and he said the first thing we had to do on the day of the election was to elect a chairman; I said, very well; Mr. Tatt has received printed instructions, and has concluded that his name appears first, he is chairman; Mr. Mikell said he would vote for me as chairman, and Mr. Tatt did not act as chairman; Mr. Mikell was always recognized as chairman of the board.

In reply to Mr. Barker, for protestants: The first thing Mr. Barker was to do was to appoint a chairman; our first meeting was at the City Hall, to prepare for the general election; there was no further proposition as to who should be chairman, except what was said by Mr. Tatt and myself; no formal appointment of managers was then made; we regarded Mr. Mikell as chairman.

the arrangement; there was no regular organization; there were only three of us, and they being in a majority, I acquiesced in all their suggestions; we went through no such process as required by the law; I am not certain that I did not do as was suggested; I do not think it was, only when he went to vote, and we put our ballots in the box; I did not swear before anybody; I have never taken any oath only when I went to vote; as I intended, every man who came to the election, I saw him, I thought it necessary to be sworn myself.
